Call for the position of Coordinator for Equality

The Executive Committee (EC) hereby issues the call for the position of Coordinator for Equality at the European Students' Union (ESU). According to ESU's Standing Orders, the Coordinators are expected to be the responsible experts for issues that are of priority to ESU on a constant basis.

The Coordinators have to report on their activities to the Board of ESU twice a year during the Board Meetings (BMs). Between the Board Meetings, they are accountable to the Executive Committee, which has to make sure that their activities follow the Plan of Work.

According to the Standing Orders, point 9.1, the mandate of a Coordinator is described in the call issued by the Executive Committee and shall not be longer than two years. The Executive Committee hereby opens a call with a mandate of the Coordinator for Equality lasting for 12 months from July 1st 2018 to June 30th 2019.

According to the point 9.1 of ESU's Standing Orders, the Coordinator for Equality shall:

- Oversee the implementation of the Gender Mainstreaming Strategy,
- Oversee the implementation of equality measures in all of ESU's work and activities,
- Develop policy on issues of equity and equality in higher education and within ESU,
- Attend and organise trainings in the field of equality, including developing and conducting gender sessions and sessions related to the area of equality during BMs, European Student Conventions and EC-Meetings.
- Represent ESU in external events discussing fields relating to equity and equality according to what the Executive Committee mandates them to.

Following ESU's Plan of Work 2018, the following tasks fall under the responsibility of the Coordinator:

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

- Implement the work of Task Force on Women's Representation to review the Gender Mainstreaming Strategy and recommend changes to it after consulting the NUS's
- Attend and organise trainings in the field of equality, including developing and conducting gender sessions and sessions related to the area of equality during Board Meetings, European Student Conventions and Executive Committee meetings.
- Give the task Force on Women's' representation a role in recommending workshops and co-facilitate such workshops
- Promote Intersectionality within the Gender Sessions.
- Consult the Task Force on Women's Representation within the movement and Task Force on Inclusion of Students with Disabilities when the board is developing ESU's policy and statements
- Work to increase cooperation with partners and ESU associate members, such as IGLYO and the European Disability Forum.
- Establish a Task Force on inclusion of students with disabilities with the mandate of reviewing and updating internal ESU accessibility structures and external policy developments.
- Continue to support the administration, work plan implementation and issues and recommendations of Task Force's relating to the area of equality.
- Facilitate spaces at ESU events for Women's' group and the network for LGBTQ+ people, and create workshops or activities that shape capacity building in these areas of work.

For more information on the working areas as decided by ESU's Board, candidates are welcome to take a reference of ESU's Plan of Work 2018.

Candidates are expected to have a genuine interest in contributing to the development of the European Students' Union on this field and have the appropriate knowledge, experience and capacity for carrying out the mandate and tasks as outlined above.

ESU Coordinators are entitled to receive a monthly allowance of 300 EUR. All expenses related to coordinators performing their duties (like attending internal ESU events, going for external representation) will be covered by ESU in accordance with internal ESU rules (Financial Standing Orders, Rules of Procedure).

In addition to specific knowledge while taking into account the nature of the Organisation and its working culture, it is important, that the applicants are aware of following competences required to perform successfully in this position:

- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines,
- Ability to work as an active, reliable team-member on multiple tasks simultaneously,

- Ability to work and communicate effectively as part of a multicultural team,
- Ability to deliver oral and written presentations on this policy area,
- Ability to work independently and mostly through online channels,
- Good spoken and written English language skills.

Being a Coordinator in ESU entails a considerable commitment, both in terms of time and workload. This position requires a dedication of at least 20 -25 hours per week on ESU related work including responding to online communication regularly. The person is expected to work from home, but be available for frequent travel. It is required that the written motivation of the applicant reflects the experience in response to the above-mentioned criteria.

In case of being selected, the coordinator must be available to attend the handover with the entire team in Belgium from the 5th of July until the 11th of July 2018 (5th being arrival day and 11th being departure day).

Selection procedure:

The selection procedure has to be described according to the internal motion 9dxvii passed at BM70 in Bergen.

According to the Standing Orders, point 9.2, the Coordinators are selected by the Executive Committee. The EC will put up a selection committee consisting of current and incoming members of the Executive Committee (EC). When composing a selection committee, the EC should ensure regionally and gender balanced composition, as well as expertise of the members. The committees are agreed by the EC on proposal of the Presidency.

The committee will evaluate the applications according to the criteria described in this call, and organise Skype interviews with the candidates.

Interviews will be conducted by the selection committee. After the interview, the notes of the interview must be made available to the Executive Committee. If needed, the Executive Committee can request to conduct additional interviews for clarifications or ask to fulfill tasks in order to examine the competences of the applicants.

The selection committee after the evaluation of the application documents and the interviews, and if needed, additional interviews and/or tasks, makes a recommendation to the Executive Committee:

- 1) To select one of the candidates;
- 2) To select none of the candidates and reopen the call;

3) To choose between the candidates evaluated as being equally strong by the selection committee. These might be all or only some of the applicants.

The Executive Committee members are able to vote in favour or against for the recommendation made by the selection committee, or abstain. In case there has been a recommendation for one candidate, which has been refused by the EC, the EC can decide to vote for another candidate or to reopen the call.

In case none of the candidates has been recommended by the selection committee, but the EC votes against reopening the call, the EC shall select one of the candidates.

In case where the selection committee makes equally strong recommendation to some or all of the candidates, the Executive Committee members are able to vote in favour of one of the recommended candidates, against all of the recommended candidates or abstain in the decision - if none of the candidates is selected here, the call will be reopened.

After the selection is finalised, the EC is informing the candidates, if they have been selected, and the Board will be informed by a report about the selection (requirement according to the IM 9dxvii BM70) as well as the documents will be made public to the Board at this point of time (requirement IM BM 70), in order to prevent pressure on candidates and decision making bodies at an earlier stage.

Selection criteria:

- Knowledge and experience in the area of equality and in the student movement,
- Ability to demonstrate ideas for developing the position and work it entails,
- Ability to work as an active and reliable team-member on multiple tasks,
- Ability to work independently,
- Ability to deliver oral and written presentations on the policy area,
- Good spoken and written English language skills.

Application procedure:

Candidates are required to send:

- Their Curriculum Vitae
- Their Motivation Letter

A nomination letter from one of the ESU member organisation (including associates) will be looked upon favourably.

According to the Internal motion 9dxvii passed by the Board at BM70 in Bergen, in order to increase the transparency, the documents involved in the selection process will be made accessible to the ESU Board after the selection process is concluded.

Applications must be submitted in writing to the ESU Executive Committee. Therefore candidates shall send their full application by e-mail to ec@esu-online.org or hand it personally to the ESU secretariat. The deadline for submitting applications is the 1st of June 2018, 23:59 CEST.

The applicants should be available for a Skype interview on the 5th, 6th, 8th or the 14th of June 2018. In case the applicants are applying before the deadline, they can also be called for an interview before the closing of the deadline. We suggest the applicants apply as early as possible so the selection process can go as quick as possible.
