

Student Mobility Factsheet

63%

of students used EU programmes to arrange mobility.

19%

of students arranged mobility through other national mobility frameworks.

18%

of students arranged mobility by themselves.

EUROSTUDENT COUNTRIES

Norway, Denmark, Slovenia, France, Finland, the Netherlands, Malta, Austria, Sweden, Estonia, Iceland, Lithuania, Serbia, Latvia and Germany

have

20%

or more students who have been enrolled in different types of activities related to studying abroad

Eurostudent 2018

EXPERIENCES ABROAD

85% of students from

Georgia Slovakia
Portugal Croatia
Albania Hungary
Poland

have never been enrolled in mobility

Eurostudent 2018

BENEFITS for students who have participated in international mobility

- better access to job opportunities
- Support for international careers
- tend to have higher income
- Experiences abroad contribute to students' personal development
- Intercultural experiences: improving problem-solving, creativity and flexibility skills and self-confidence

KEY FACTORS

Parental Higher Education background

is one of the key factors that impact individual decision whether to engage in mobility or not.

Key, Milatova and Horstmann, 2017 (Eurostudent, 2018)

---

2/3 of students who have enrolled abroad, are reporting to depend financial help from their parents, family or partner

Eurostudent 2018

students living with their parents

less likely to enrol into study-related activities abroad

students with part-time jobs

more likely to enrol into study-related activities abroad

Eurostudent 2018

OBSTACLES to temporary enrolment abroad

Additional financial burden

Separation from partner, children or friends

Lack of motivation

Difficult regarding integration to the programme abroad

Lack of language skills

Recognition of results achieved abroad

Lack of information about programs abroad

Access regulations at the host country

Health/disability

Named by students who have not been enrolled abroad and do not plan to enrol abroad. European Council for Student Affairs (ECSTA)