

2nd webinar on e-learning: The toolbox for e-assessment

The European Students' Union (ESU) hereby invites you for the second webinar in the series of webinars on the topic of e-learning: The toolbox for e-assessment.

The European Students' Union (ESU) organizes a series of webinars on the highly relevant topic of e-learning. The webinar series tackles the issues of (1) possibilities that e-learning offers, (2) assessment in e-learning, (3) quality of e-learning and (4) recognition of e-courses. These topics are more relevant than ever in the time of Corona!

This second edition will be all about "Assessment in E-learning." A lot of students are now facing the fact that they will have to pass their courses from home, online, which is a very new experience for many students and teachers. The topics that the this webinar tackles include: How can assessment take place in e-learning? What are the differences between assessment in e-learning and in traditional higher education? How can providers ensure that the assessment methods are fair and learner-centred in order to meet course learning outcomes?

The program of the webinar is as follows:

- Introduction by the experts
- Panel discussion
- Q&A

The webinar will take place on the 6th of May from 2pm to 3pm CET.

You will receive the details to join the webinar a few days before the event, after you signed up for the webinar on Eventbrite. (in order to make sure we can start on time, please log in 5 min before the start of the webinar).
