THE NEED TO TALK ABOUT NEW ASSESSMENT POLICIES

- HEIs not (completely) ready to move to online education
- QA agencies can not guarantee the quality of this new learning
- Students not used to online mode of education
- Teachers not equipped to do online assessment

BUT!!!

The GPA still includes the 2020 spring semester

SURVEY: STUDENT LIFE DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

FROM ALL AROUND EUROPE

78.58% – Undergrad students

16.17% – Master's students

LAUNCHED ON APRIL 20

Open until April 30

17,285 RESPONSES RECEIVED

91.47% – full-time students

8.53% – part-time students

24.29%

WERE NOT PROVIDED WITH COURSE
ASSIGNMENTS

44.61%

WERE NOT PROVIDED WITH FEEDBACK ON THEIR ASSIGNMENTS

50.35%

EXAMS IN THIS NEW SITUATION

New policies need to ensure...

NO UNEQUITABLE
AND UNEQUAL
SITUATIONS

AVERAGE GRADES
AND GENERAL
MARKS NOT HARMED

E-LEARNING ALIGNED TO LEARNING
OUTCOMES (LO)

TRUSTWORTHY
QUALIFICATIONS
AND LO OF 2020

Challenges from the EUA's Thematic Peer Group on student assessment

- Making sure that assessment is inclusive and equitable
- Supporting students to become change agents
- Deriving a framework for professional development in assessment
