

Selection criteria

Programme's objectives	Is your project in line with the programme's objectives?
Quality of needs assessment	Do you have a good knowledge of the context, such as students' needs, their inclusion and rights, your communities' needs during/after the COVID-19 pandemic, other initiatives or policy addressing similar topics?
Cooperation with students and youth	The aims and objectives of the project have been negotiated and agreed with young people* How are students and youth involved in the project design and implementation?
Relevance of the approach proposed	Is the initiative effectively answering to the needs it aims to address?
Impact	What change is the initiative bringing about?
Quality of the project design	Are the objectives, results, and budget measurable?
Inclusion of diversity and gender equality	The project is open to all people regardless of their gender, social class, resources, etc.*

*"Have your say!" Manual on the revised European Charter on the participation of young people in local and regional life