

ING • SAFE SPACES • STUDY • WORK • ENVIRONMENT • MENTAL WELL-BEING • SAFE SPACES • SOCIAL DIMENSION • WORK • ENVIRONMENT • MENTAL W
ELL-BEING • SAFE SPACES • STUDY • WORK • ENVIRONMENT • MENTAL WELL-BEING • SAFE SPACES • STUDY • WORK • ENVIRONMENT • MENTAL WELL-BE

FROM ZERO TO 100 WE WANT IT ALL.

 OUR
 100
 PROPOSALS
 FOR THE FUTURE.

SOCIAL DIMENSION AND ACCESS TO SECONDARY AND HIGHER EDUCATION

1. 5% of GDP in education
2. Free school and university materials
3. Extraordinary plan of interventions in School and University Buildings
4. Free student and university Local Public Transport
5. Reducing the number of pupils per class
6. Opening of schools beyond curricular hours
7. Abolition of university taxation
8. Full coverage and increase of scholarships
9. Construction of 650 thousand rooms for non-resident students and renovation of residences
10. Abolition of Numerus Clausus both at national and at local level
11. Active policies to combat early school leaving
12. Reform of Higher Education Cycles
13. Reform of Student Representation and Provincial Student Councils (SPCs)
14. Establishment of compensatory contributions for the increased cost of living for students
15. Creation of INPS contributions for school and university studies (INPS is the National Social Security Institute)
16. Abolition of premium shares of FFO and FIS
17. Creation of national university and labour market orientation paths
18. Reform of merit criteria for a more inclusive access to scholarships
19. Full coverage of the need for postgraduate scholarships
20. Strengthening and expanding international mobility
21. Enhancing the Internet connection in schools and universities
22. Total coverage of rental costs for non-resident students
23. Free health care for non-resident students
24. Maintaining of the recordings of university lectures

25. Free subscriptions for activities at university sports centres
26. Free subscriptions to cultural and social events (such as concerts, theatre performances etc.)
27. Distribution of an electronic device to each student at the beginning of each study cycle
28. Free regional and national public transport for commuters and non-resident students
29. Renovation and conversion of disused buildings to common areas
30. Establishment of school sports centres
31. Establishment of at least one study room and library in each school and university building
32. Appropriate laboratory facilities for the study of the subjects included in the Three Year Education Plan (PTOF)
33. Coverage of the need for laboratory facilities in all university buildings and departments
34. Free meals in university canteens and implementation of free canteens in high schools
35. Reconversion of property confiscated from mafias
36. Reforming the law for protection of specific learning disorders and needs
37. Increasing the number of university tutors to support and help students with disabilities
38. Expansion of recruitment of support teachers within schools
39. Qualitative reform of the university evaluation system
40. Cutting costs of school trips
41. Overcoming numerical assessment in favour of evaluative grades

WORK

42. Abolition of PCTOs (Pathways for Transversal Skills and Orientation)
43. Abolition of free university apprenticeships
44. National recognition of the figure of the student-worker
45. Secure university traineeships consistent with the course of study
46. Establishment of a Charter of Student Trainees' Rights
47. Training in labour rights and safety at work provided by the trade unions for at least 30% of the total school and university traineeships
48. Establishment of the National Observatory on School and University Traineeships
49. Introduction of School Traineeships
50. Provision of a minimum allowance for curricular and extracurricular traineeships
51. Reimbursement of travel expenses between residence, place of traineeship and university
52. Active policies towards the reduction of precarious employment of young people
53. Creation of incentives towards the hiring of young people in both the public and private sectors
54. Greater transparency in the procedure for awarding doctoral scholarships
55. Increase in the amount and number of doctoral scholarships
56. Reform of the programme of access to teaching by reducing the credits needed to access the rankings and facilitating the inclusion of the necessary exams in the study plans
57. Creation of specialised guidance figures for traineeships abroad

ENVIRONMENT

58. Elimination of the plastic use inside schools and universities
59. Energy efficiency of at least 10% of school and university buildings by 2030
60. One tree for every student: increasing green spaces in schools and universities
61. Conversion of all Gas and Coal power plants
62. Provision of free reusable water bottles in schools and universities
63. Drinking water dispensers in all school and university buildings
64. 100% separate waste collection inside schools and universities
65. Environmental and ecological education courses
66. Inclusion of vegan and vegetarian choices in canteen menus
67. Increasing digitalisation and reducing paperwork
68. Abolition of agreements between universities and polluting companies
69. Increasing funds for research towards a proper transition
70. Creation of at least 100 School and University Energy Communities by 2030
71. Increasing cycle paths in the cities
72. Expansion of sustainable public transport services
73. Abolition of the use of pollutants during NATO exercises on national territory
74. Ensuring appropriate nutritional, sustainability and ethical qualities for school and university canteen meals

PSYCHIC HEALTH AND MENTAL WELL-BEING

75. Abolition of school Information and Counselling Centres (CICs)
76. Establishment of Psychological Assistance and Counselling Points in schools and universities
77. Establishment of the Territorial Basic Psychologist
78. Emotional and affectivity education courses and learning paths in schools and universities
79. Training of the teaching staff in dealing with students who ask for help
80. Paths for the prevention of eating disorders inside schools and universities
81. Awareness-raising paths for families in schools
82. Construction of more spaces for gathering and socialising in schools and universities
83. Establishment of protocols with the Postal Police for the protection of cybersecurity in schools and universities, conducting appropriate training on bullying and mental health issues
84. Creation of a Violet Phone for counselling on eating disorders

SAFE SPACES

85. Compulsory gender, sexuality and affectivity education inside schools
86. Awareness-raising paths on gender-based violence in schools
87. Prophylactic supplies and free sanitary pad dispensers in schools and universities
88. Alias Careers in schools and universities
89. Establishment of gender neutral toilets
90. Activation of Anti-Violence Points in schools and universities with psychological and legal support
91. Removal of architectural barriers inside school and university buildings and in cities
92. Activation of re-education and reintegration paths in prisons
93. Possibility of attending school or university for those going through a period of detention
94. Anti-fascism and anti-mafia education paths within schools and universities
95. Economic support to protect the right to study for students and researchers from conflict zones
96. Establishment of paths for the promotion of peace and disarmament values within universities and schools
97. Increase of the open-access meeting and debate spaces for young people in the cities
98. Connection between schools, universities and anti-violence centres
99. Enhancing CAV (anti-violence centers) and counselling centres
100. Right to vote in the city where they study for all university students