The European Students' Union is HIRING a new Project Officer!

Are you a value-driven professional passionate about the student movement and advocating for quality and inclusive education? Then apply now for ESU's position: we are looking for a Project Officer to join our team and implement our work to promote "Equal educational and social opportunities in an open and democratic Europe where students shape a sustainable future."

The application deadline is 16/04/2023 (23:59 CET)

More about ESU

The European Students Union (ESU) is the umbrella organisation of 45 National Unions of Students from 40 countries and thus represents over 20 million students in Europe. Since 1982, it has represented and promoted students' educational, social, economic and cultural interests at a European level towards all relevant bodies (European Union, BFUG, Council of Europe, and UNESCO) in the Education sector.

We offer a diverse and multicultural working environment in the centre of the EU district!

About the Position

An experienced, motivated and committed individual to be our next Project Officer. We are looking for a candidate who is passionate about democracy, inclusion and sustainability and wants to make higher education policy-making more understandable and accessible to everyone!

- Location: Brussels, Belgium
- Starting date: May 2023, exact date to be confirmed
- Duration: One-year fixed-term contract, with the possibility of extension. Employment contract under Belgian employment law with a benefits package. (37.5 hr/week).
- The gross monthly salary, according to the Commission Paritaire 329.03 currently applied at ESU, is 2,000.00€, which will be commensurate with abilities and experience, plus attractive additional benefits (transport, food vouchers, per diem during occasional travel, etc.).

- Flexibility about home-teleworking some days per week with a 50€ monthly allowance compensation.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities

In this role, you will:

- Work on the whole project's cycle (proposal writing, implementation and reporting);
- Coordinate and monitor the implementation of the projects under Erasmus+, Council of Europe, European Youth Foundation and other funding streams;
- Handle the logistics and all procedures of the projects;
- Work on the project's budget and financial reporting;
- Coordinate and organise meetings, conferences, trainings and other project-related events, and prepare the necessary materials, including concept notes, reports, presentations, agendas and minutes;
- Act as a liaison between project coordinators and other people involved in the projects;
- Regularly report and communicate with the donor institution(s) and/or managing authority.
- Liaise with the diverse membership of ESU in matters relating to projects.

The Secretariat of ESU is small, the workload varies according to project cycles, application and reporting periods, therefore project teams assist each other during times of higher workload.

Belgium & life in Brussels

Belgium, a country in Western Europe, is known for its mediaeval towns, and Renaissance architecture, and as the headquarters of the European Union and NATO.

Brussels has an estimated population of 2,065,284 people. In addition to ample green spaces, it is world-renowned for its fine beer, divine chocolate, and Belgian lace. Brussels is Belgium's quintessential capital city, full of Art Deco taverns, unique Flemish art, towering Gothic cathedrals, and quaint guild houses.

Belgium is also home to NATO headquarters and to the EU Commission and European Parliament. Brussels is referred to as the capital of the EU. The city centre is compact, very lively, peculiar and multicultural.

The city is easy to get around, has a good standard of living and an excellent working environment. ESU's premises are situated in Mundo Madou very close to the EU district and the City. ESU can help with advice on reallocation and getting accustomed to life in Brussels.
